

Andalusian Adventure

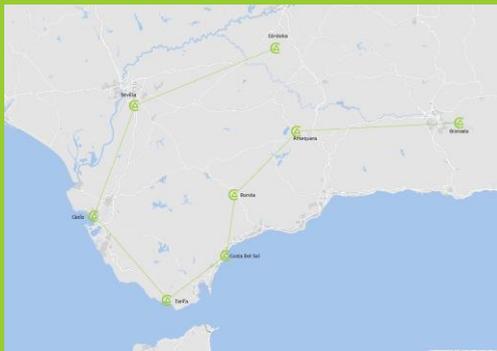

The Tour

Andalusia is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Europe and is a region of startling contrasts and great charm. It is famous for its sandy beaches, beautiful countryside, spectacular mountain ranges, fabulous monuments and high-spirited people who live life to the full and are well known for their exuberance, warmth, and hospitality. It is also the home of flamenco and bullfighting. But perhaps the most unique feature of this enchanting region are the remnants of its Moorish past. The cities of Cordoba, Seville and Granada all boast spectacular remains of their monuments, the most unforgettable of which is Granada's Alhambra palace. As well as Andalusia's fascinating cities and dazzling shores, the region is sprinkled with tiny unspoiled villages and whitewashed towns - the famous pueblos blancos. Andalusia is also known for its unique and delicious cuisine which uses first-class ingredients grown throughout the region, fresh fish and seafood caught along its extensive coastline, and there are typical dishes from farther inland including refreshing summer soups, hearty winter stews and indulgent pastries. Andalusia is also commonly accepted as the birthplace of Tapas which can be tried in bars all over the region and should be accompanied by a glass of the locally produced wine or sherry made from the grapes grown around Jerez in southwest Andalusia.

Andalusian Adventure

Day 1, Day 2 & Day 3: Córdoba Region

We will meet at a campsite located in the olive groves close to Córdoba. On the first evening, we will have a typical Andalusian dinner so that the participants can get to know each other. After the long journey you will have two days, to relax at the campsite or go to Córdoba, famous for its Great Mosque. The historic old town is a World Heritage site and is full of little streets, squares, lively taverns and jewellery shops waiting to be explored.

Day 4: Córdoba Region – Seville

Just outside the city of Córdoba there is another UNESCO World Heritage site, the Medina Azahara. On our way to Seville visit Écija the “city of towers”, with its eleven towers, nine steeples, churches, palaces and viewing points.

Day 5 & Day 6: Seville

You have two whole days to explore Seville and take in the grandeur of its monuments, like the largest gothic Cathedral in Europe or the extraordinary palace Real Alcázar both of which are UNESCO World Heritage sites. You will also have time to meander through the old town and enjoy the lively life streets and plazas.

Day 7: Seville – Cádiz Region

Today we will be driving south to our campsite on the Costa de la Luz. On the way you can visit Jerez de la Frontera, with its old quarter surrounding the 11th century Alcázar. Jerez is also known for the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art offering different horse shows and of course for its Sherry.

Day 8 & Day 9: Cádiz Region

We are now in the southern part of the Sherry Triangle and therefore will have a group visit to one of the most famous sherry bodegas in Spain. On our second day here, we recommend taking the ferry to visit Cádiz, the oldest city in Western Europe.

Day 10: Cádiz Region – Tarifa Region

On our route today we recommend visiting Vejer de la Frontera with its narrow, winding streets and whitewashed houses located on a hill offering magnificent panoramic views.

Day 11: Tarifa Region

Our campsite is close to the beach, where you can watch the wind surfers, or just soak up some sun. You could also use the day to go Whale Watching or for a daytrip to Africa with a guided tour of Tangier.

Day 12: Tarifa Region – Costa del Sol

We are now leaving the Costa de la Luz on the Atlantic coast and will drive to the Mediterranean coast. On route you have the opportunity to visit Gibraltar.

Day 13: Costa del Sol

A relaxing day at the campsite located directly on a beautiful beach on the Costa del Sol.

Day 14: Costa del Sol – Ronda

Today we drive to Ronda and can enjoy the scenic views and the beautiful white villages.

Day 15: Ronda

Ronda sits on either side of the Tajo del Ronda, a narrow gorge more than 150 metres deep, crossed by several bridges. The historic town centre and the different viewpoints along the rocks are impressive.

Day 16: Ronda – Antequera Region

Leaving Ronda, we will visit an olive farm and have a guided tour and oil tasting. Before arriving at our next campsite, you can see Europe’s second largest flamingo colony at a nearby nature reserve.

Day 17: Antequera Region

We have reserved this day for you to visit the beautiful town of Antequera, take the train to Malaga or see the UNESCO World Heritage Antequera Dolmens Site and El Torcal mountains.

Day 18: Antequera Region – Granada

Today we drive to our lakeside campsite in the Granada region.

Day 19 & Day 20: Granada

Granada located at the foothills of the Sierra Nevada is a bustling city with the UNESCO World Heritage sites the Alhambra fortress and residence and the magnificent gardens.

Day 21: Departure and end of tour
