Exciting Eastern Germany

Day 1 – Day 3: Potsdam/Berlin

We start our tour in the former Prussian capital Potsdam and in the evening of the first day we will enjoy a group dinner with typical regional food in order for everyone to get to know each other. From the campsite it is only a short train ride into Berlin, Germany's capital city, where you can visit the Reichstag, the seat of the German Parliament, the Brandenburg gate, or enjoy the museums on the "Museumsinsel", which is also a UNESCO World Heritage site. You can also visit Checkpoint Charlie, the only border crossing in Berlin during the cold war. Potsdam itself also has plenty to offer and the castle and gardens of Sanssouci are also a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Day 4: Potsdam – Spreewald

We leave the Berlin region and travel south-east to the UNESCO Spreewald Biosphere Reserve. The Spreewald Forest is a one-of-a-kind stretch of land in Germany with the Spree River branching out into hundreds of smaller streams surrounded by woods, meadows and fields making up a unique and mystical water maze. On route there you can stop at Tropical Islands, Europe's largest tropical holiday resort with several different swimming pools, a tropical forest and beaches. It is housed in the world's largest self-supporting hall in a former Zeppelin hangar.

Day 5: Spreewald

Today we explore the Spreewald and as a group event we will take a guided punting trip on a traditional flat bottomed punting boat through some of the streams and canals that crisscross this jungle like forest and marshland. While in this area you can try the famous Spreewald gherkins or admire some of the hand painted Easter eggs manufactured by the Sorb ladies.

Day 6: Spreewald – Upper Lusatian Region

We continue our journey via Cottbus to the Upper Lusatian Region. Here you can visit the castle and gardens in Bad Muskau, a landscaped park and UNESCO World Heritage site astride the Neisse River and the border between Germany and Poland. You can also stop at Germany's largest Rhododendron park in Kromlau.

Day 7: Upper Lusatian Region – Saxon Switzerland

Our destination today is the Saxon Switzerland National Park. On the way you can visit Görlitz, Germany's most eastern city or Bautzen with its historic city centre and the "Stasi prison" which has been turned into a museum.

Day 8: Saxon Switzerland

Today you can explore the Saxon Switzerland National Park with the famous Bastei, 400 sq km of hiking routes and stunning sandstone formations that look quite unlike anything else in Europe. The Golden city of Prague is also only a 2-hour drive from here.

Day 9: Saxon Switzerland – Dresden

We only have a short drive to the next campsite from where you can take a hop-on hop-off bus into the city of Dresden. On the way you can visit one of the many castles and gardens, for example the fortress Königstein, Germany's oldest barracks or Schloss Pillnitz.

Day 10: Dresden

Dresden is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe and has been restored to its former glory after being destroyed by the Allied bombings in WWII. There are plenty of palaces, churches, museums and stately buildings to visit including the Zwinger, the Renaissance city palace, the Semper Opera house and the Frauenkirche. The best way to enjoy the striking city silhouette is from a steamboat on the river Elbe.

Day 11: Dresden – Colditz

Today we travel to the city of Colditz south of Leipzig. On route stop at the porcelain city of Meissen. If you are not a porcelain lover, go to the historic city of Leipzig where you can also visit the impressive monument to the Battle of the Nations. The battle involved 600,000 soldiers making it the largest battle in Europe prior to WWI.

Day 12: Colditz

Here we recommend visiting Colditz Castle the "escape-proof" WWII PoW camp. Embark on an emotive journey through time with an interactive tablet. The legendary escape attempts by POWs such as Pat Reid, the author of »The Colditz Story«, still exert a special fascination today. You can test at an interactive experience station whether you would have succeeded in escaping with the famous Colditz glider. Alternatively relax at the campsite.

Day 13: Colditz – Saale-Unstrut Region

Today we travel to the Saale-Unstrut wine region. In the evening, we will have a wine tasting and a visit of the wine cellar, which is in walking distance of our campsite. On route you can visit the city of Naumburg with its impressive historic town centre and cathedral. Alternatively try the most popular East German "Champagne" in Freyburg.

Day 14: Saale-Unstrut – Erfurt/Weimar Region

On our way to the last campsite, you have the chance to visit Jena, which is famous for its precision glass manufacturing, the company Zeiss and the German Optical Museum. Alternatively visit the two historic cities of Weimar, home of Goethe and Schiller, and Erfurt with the Cathedral and the medieval bridge "Krämerbrücke", lined with inhabited, half-timbered buildings on both sides. Or stop at the concentration Camp Buchenwald near Weimar.

Day 15: Departure and end of tour
